

Higher Level Football Coaching Internship – Accra, Ghana

About the Project

Become part of the coaching team at a leading Premiership football club or elite football academy in Accra, Ghana. You'll help coach and develop some of the country's most promising young players. This internship gives you real responsibility to design and support training programmes that help develop Ghana's rising stars (U13 – U17) to reach their full potential. You'll work alongside coaches to enhance training methods, and will be given the freedom and responsibility to implement your own ideas, drills and philosophy to improve the current training programmes, all whilst gaining invaluable practical experience within an elite football setting and a football mad nation. You will also be asked to assist with coaching on match-days

Must be at least level 2 coaching qualified*
