

Journalism and Media Internship – Accra, Ghana

Project Overview

The Journalism and Media Internship in Accra gives you first-hand experience working alongside Ghana's leading journalists and media professionals across newspapers, radio and TV outlets. Positions range from researchers at a local paper, to being the half-time analyst for football matches on TV! Our extensive links allow you to experiment several avenues. Opportunities include but are not limited to; writing articles, supporting broadcast preparation, assisting with production segments, helping teams tell impactful stories that matter. We encourage you to get involved with schools and sports academies – teaching classes in media, creative writing, and the basics of journalism. This is an awesome opportunity to give something back to the community and to mix with Ghana's ambitious youngsters. Alternatively, you may also want to use your placement as an opportunity to collect information for your own university projects and assignments.

Living in Accra

Accra is a vibrant, welcoming city with rich culture, markets, nightlife, beaches, and historic sites. Volunteers often explore Cape Coast Castle, Wli Waterfalls and Mole National Park in their free time.

What's Included

Accommodation, 3x meals per day (2x meals at weekends), airport pick-up, support & orientation, project coordination, 24-hour in-country team support

What's Excluded

Flights, travel insurance & visas, vaccinations, spending money, In-country transport (£25 per week), photography/film equipment, DBS certificate (essential)

Duration & Pricing (28-day minimum) other durations are available

- 2026 price: £1,250 (28-days)
- 2027 price: £1,312.50 (28-days)

Sign up today