Your Conservation Programme – Nambiti

Students will be taught and work alongside the field guides and conservation team. The following examples depict the day-to-day activities that may be undertaken as part of the project at Nambiti.

- Use of Telemetry Tracking
- Elephant Monitoring / Population Study
- Rhino Monitoring – Awareness
- Anti-poaching talk and fence walk
- Camera Trapping
- Night Drive
- Bush Walk
- Habitat and Prey Selection of Predators
- Tracks, Signs and Spoor

Additional Research Projects

Aardwolf Research

A new project for 2024/25 monitoring the aardwolf on Nambiti. Aardwolf are a nocturnal, insectivorous species of hyena. Through night drives, camera traps and collaring we hope to gain a better understanding of the species and their behaviour. Termite mounds have also been logged as well as possible den sites along fence lines

Birds of prey research

Identification of a key species on the reserve. Epicollect forms have been made, these forms contain nest sites, locations, GPS coordinates, species, number, road name.

Animal Vigilance in Antelope: Response to Predation Risk

Focusing on vigilance behaviour in antelope, specifically impala and blue wildebeest, as a predator avoidance strategy. This study is particularly timely with the planned introduction of female cheetah onto the reserve, providing a unique opportunity to observe changes in antelope vigilance in response to increased predation threats.

Research Projects

Small Predator Management - All species need to be identified, mainly via camera trapping. A catalogue of animals is being made so we can identify as many individuals as possible on the reserve. More information is desperately required by the reserve, especially in relation to prey species.

Large Predator Management - Lion, leopard, brown hyena and caracal have an impact that needs to be identified and recorded. Mapping their home ranges and activities.

Conservation Management - Aspects of the physical management of the environment and other supporting infrastructure is needed to manage a game reserve. Fencing, road and tracks, erosion, planning and mapping all need monitoring to ensure the success of the reserve's biodiversity.

Mega Herbivore Management - Feeding habits and their impact on the ecosystem need to be reported on.

Research Projects

Giraffe Research Project - In the past five years, considerable progress has been made in compiling and producing a species-wide assessment of population size and distribution. The continued growth of these populations however is limited by the ability of that ecosystem to support a particular number of Giraffes due to space, water and forage availability (i.e. limited carrying capacity).

Over population of Giraffe can have deleterious effects on indigenous flora which may in turn adversely affect other animals within the conservation area; it is necessary to calculate a sustainable carrying capacity for a specific area.

Through our ongoing Giraffe Conservation Project, we aim to gather all the data necessary for generating a conservation plan for our Giraffe. This will help in planning for the future expansion of conservation areas or for reducing the population size through game capture.

Bush Walks and Ecology Trails

One of the unique aspects of the KwaZulu-Natal Conservation project is the ability to utilise the reserves for walking trails and ecology lessons.

Groups will be accompanied by professional guides as they navigate through the reserve observing the smaller aspects of the flora and fauna that the African Bush has to offer.

Along the way the guide will identify edible and poisonous plants, as well as those of cultural significance, enhancing the educational value of the hike.

Wilderness Trail Experience

As part of your conservation experience, groups will have the opportunity to take part in a breathtaking wilderness trail between Nambiti and Zingela.

Those choosing the adventurous route* will embark on a 7km hiking trail from Nambiti to a designated point on the Tugela River.

From there, our river guides will meet the group and assist you to navigate across the stretch of river into Zingela.

A true Adventure!!!

\ A road transfer will also be available between reserves for anyone who doesn't wish to participate in the trail.*

Adventure Activities – Zingela

White Water Rafting & Kayaking

There is an excellent 20km stretch of rapids and pools in this section of the Tugela Canyon including the intimidating Washing Machine and Finger Rock rapids.

Abseiling & Rock Climbing

The cliffs overlooking the Tugela Canyon provide dizzying abseil sites. Face your fear or watch other participants step over the edge. Registered, experienced guides are there to provide reassurance and safety.
